LOCAL NEWS.

Tomorrow is American Legion Day in Nogales.

Monday George W. Parker, of the San Rafael valley, brought an auto load of dressed hogs to the local market.

John A. McPherson, from Guaymas, is visiting in the city, having arrived on yesterday morning's train.

The forepart of the week Mrs. J. Kruttschnitt, Jr., spent a couple of days in Nogales, a guest at The Bowman.

Captain J. Campbell Besley, from his cotton plantation near Hermosillo, has been a visitor in Nogales a couple of days this week.

Today at the Nogales Cafe, the members of the local order of the American Association of Engineers, will hold their regular luncheon.

Editor A. H. Lyons of the Tucson Citizen, returned yesterday from Hermosillo, where he had been on a combined business and pleasure visit.

This week Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lennicott of El Paso, have been enjoying a visit in Nogales, as guests at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Wuerschmidt.

This week Jack Hoy, son of Jack Hoy, Sr., has been a visitor at the county seat, from Patagonia, near which place his father is operating a big mining property.

This week local cattlemen have been wearing elongated smiles, as a result of the splendid much-needed rains. Cy. Marsteller says: "Did it rain? I'll say it did."

Mr. T. B. Grace, representing James Dick Company of El Paso, accompanied by Mrs. Grace, motored over from Douglas the forepart of the week. They registered at The Bowman.

W. Beckford Kibbey, Jr., from the great Alamo Rancho in Sonora, has been a visitor in Nogales this week a couple of days. He is a son in law of Captain L. W. Mix, well known local capitalist.

Last Sunday Charley Fowler and family enjoyed a picnic at Ramsey Canyon. En route home everybody got "soaking wet." The trip was made via Tucson by automobile, with Charley V. at the wheel.

Mr. Alex. Carpena, the haberdasher, accompanied by Mrs. Carpena, departed for the coast last Tuesday, expecting to be gone a couple of months. Their little daughter is attending school in Los Angeles.

Yesterday morning Otto H. Herold, vice president of The First National Bank of Nogales, and Dr. Smelker, popular local medico, returned from a business visit to the south country, where they own valuable land.

Friends of Hampton Raines, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Raines of this city, will be pleased to learn that he is making a splendid record in one of Los Angeles' colleges. All Nogales boys make good, where ever they go.

G. C. Jaynes, manager of the Tucson Citizen, has been a business visitor in the city this week in the interest of his big afternoon daily, which enjoys a splendid circulation in Nogales and throughout Santa Cruz county.

Lou Koller, who with John A. McDonald, has a contract for running a tunnel in the American Boy mine, near Patagonia, was a business visitor at the county seat last Monday. Reported work in the tunnel progressing nicely.

Casey Abbott, wealthy ranch owner of Lower California, who is also mayor of Calexico, the Lower California, border city, has been a Nogales visitor this week a guest of his friend, Mr. F. E. Rodriguez, well known, successful Nogales, Arizona, hardware dealer. Mayor Abbott is a live wire and a great booster for Lower California. He says he has enjoyed his visit in Nogales.

Bob Harrington, who is now working at the municipal pumping plant out on the river, was circulating among his city friends last Thursday. Bob says he likes the quiet, simple life in the country, where he expects to spend the summer months.

R. E. Butler, former cashier of The Santa Cruz Valley Bank, now The Nogales National Bank of Nogales, was a visitor here the forepart of the week from Tucson, where he is cashier of one of the big banks of that city. He came on Superior Court business.

Fred. C. Emery, the well known, successful promoter and mine operator, after an extended business visit in the east, has returned to Nogales, and is a guest at Hotel Bowman. From here Mr. Emery will go to his mining property in Sonora, which is said to possess great merit.

H. C. Brooks, K., has retired from the management of the Sonora Restaurant, and in future Mr. R. B. Smith will personally cater to the wants of patrons of that popular resort, where the best in eats and latest jazz music, etc., etc., is a specialty. Mr. Smith is a prince of entertainers. He guarantees a square deal to all.

Attorney James D. Barry, brother of Attorney Frank J. Barry, of the well known local law firm of Barry & Fitzpatrick, spent last Sunday in Nogales, with friends. Mr. Barry since removing from Nogales to Tucson, with his family, has built up a splendid law practice in the ancient and honorable pueblo. He is always welcome in Nogales.

At the Nogales high school last Wednesday evening, Miss Clarice Taylor, accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Taylor, won the declamatory contest, and was awarded the beautiful gold medal given by Mr. A. M. Gillespie, vice president and manager of the Nogales National Bank. Miss Taylor's subject was "How the Church was Built at Kehoe's Bar."

The Play Ground Committee, recently appointed by Mayor James A. Harrison, met last Saturday and discussed plans for the establishment of vacation play grounds for the children of this city. The following women and men, who will name a supervisor for the play grounds, are Rev. O. A. Smith, George H. Fiedler, William Payne, Mrs. Andrew Miller, and Mrs. E. C. Nevius.

"All a Mistake," the farce comedy in three acts, played at the Lyric Theatre last Thursday night was greatly enjoyed by a large crowd. The following members of the senior high school class, made up the cast: Henry Leeker, John Phillips, Alfred Taylor, Roland Legarra, Helena, Karns, Dorothy Brown, Beatrice Jones and Muriel O'Neill. "All a Mistake" will long be pleasantly remembered by all who witnessed the play Thursday night.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected last Wednesday evening by the Nogales Lodge No. 13, Knights of Pythias: Chancellor Commander, J. L. Fitts; vice chancellor commander, Chas. Fraizer; prelate, D. J. Lovell; master at arms, Knight Haines; master of works, James B. Mix, K. of R. and S. Harry E. Berner, keeper finance, Foster Wright, master of exchequer, Geo. Januel; inner guard, Alfred Kibbe, outer guard, Knight Acedo.

Thad Mitchell, colored, who escaped from the county jail recently with eleven other prisoners, was captured last Sunday night south of the border by Mexican officials and is now in the Nogales, Sonora jail with three other escaped prisoners, Hooper, Corbin and Taylor, colored. Mitchell, who had Jailer Soto's pistol, surrendered to the officers without firing a shot. It is believed the escaped prisoners will soon be turned over to the United States authorities by Mexican immigration officers.

The farewell review in honor of Colonel Earl C. Carnahan, commanding officer of the 25th Infantry, at Camp Stephen D. Little, this morning, was witnessed by a large number of the colonel's friends, all of whom regret his departure from Nogales. Next Tuesday Colonel Carnahan will leave for Washington, D. C., where he will be stationed at the general staff college. Major John C. Fairfax is to be temporarily in charge of troops here, until a permanent commander to succeed Colonel Carnahan, is named.

On the first of July, next, Hon. Theo. Gebler, retired hardware merchant, who for a number of years has been one of the directors of the First National Bank of Nogales, will celebrate his ninetieth birthday anniversary. We join "Papa" Gebler's host of friends in wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Henry Levin, pioneer commission man, after an extended successful business visit in the City of Mexico, has returned home. About the first of August Mr. Levin will return to Mexico's national capital, where and his associates will engage in the commission business. En route home, Henry stopped a day in Tucson, where he visited the pleasant country home of Alex. Rossi, the retired restaurant man. At the Rossi Place he found Alex. and Hon. A. C. Bernard busy with hoe and spade, planting pink beans.

On Thursday afternoon the Sonora State Congress at Hermosillo, elected Mr. Francisco Elias de Agua Prieta, to fill the unexpired term of Governor de la Huerta, who has been given six months leave of absence to go to Mexico City to take his position of Secretary of the Treasury of Mexico. Governor-elect Elias, who is a brother-in-law of Presidente Villaseñor of Nogales, Sonora, is a wealthy rancher and stockraiser, he is a member of one of the most prominent families in the state of Sonora, and is well and favorably known in this city.

The Nogales High School graduating class of 1921, consisting of the following last night received their diplomas, the presentation being made at the high school auditorium, by Judge W. A. O'Connor: Dorothy Brown, Tacy Clagett, Beatrice Jones, Helena, Karns, Roland Legarra, Muriel O'Neill, John Phillips, Alfred Taylor, Henry Leeker. The commencement address delivered by Former United States Senator Charles E. Towne of Minnesota was interesting and instructive. The distinguished gentleman has a national reputation as a silver tongued orator.

Mr. F. F. Rodriguez, of this city, who with Mexican Consul Terrazas and President Villaseñor of Nogales, Sonora, visited Hermosillo this week, returned home yesterday morning. He verified the report that the Mexican government will cooperate with municipality of Nogales, Sonora, in the work of covering the Mexican side of the city arroyo at the south end of Grand avenue. Adolfo de la Huerta, secretary of the treasury of Mexico, now at Hermosillo, has authorized the expenditure of $10,000 on the improvement, and President Villaseñor announces that work will begin immediately.

In last Sunday's baseball game, Asa Porter, assistant coach of the Arizona University, who pitched for the Nogales team, struck out eighteen members of the Tucson Cubs, and won the game for the Nogales team, by a score of 7 to 4. Notwithstanding the rain, a big crowd of fans witnessed the game, after which the visiting team was royally entertained by Nogales players and fans. Tomorrow afternoon's game on the local diamond, for the benefit of the American Legion, between the Nogales, Sonora and the Nogales nines, is going to be a "hum dinger," according to President J. A. Legarra. Don't miss it.

The many personal friends of Alex. Strachan, the Nogales broker, here and throughout the state of Sonora, will be pleased to learn that he has been completely exonerated by a jury in the Santa Cruz county Superior Court, where the judge, after the prosecution had put its entire case before the jury, instructed that honorable body to bring in a verdict of not guilty, for Mr. Strachan. The defense didn't offer any evidence whatever, Strachan who had been accused of embezzlement, growing out of a dispute on commissions over tomato shipments from Mexico, not even going on the witness stand in his own behalf. Frank J. Barry and Warren Lee Kinder, represented Mr. Strachan.
